

Happy birthday, America!

It's that time again. Time to enjoy fireworks and family time and picnics and summer weather. Time, especially, to remember that first Independence Day, July 4th, 1776, and to be grateful for what we still have, more than 240 years later.

Regardless of who we are in America--and regardless of what we believe--we can come together on this day in mutual enjoyment and gratitude for the gifts this country has given us and the world.

Happy birthday, America! Have a safe and enjoyable Fourth of July.
